Matthew J. Roth practice primarily focuses on real estate, business transactions and estate planning. He has been practicing as an attorney in Colorado since 1996. Matt is also admitted to practice in New York and New Jersey (inactive). Prior to becoming an attorney, he worked for a real estate development company based in Chicago. In addition to his law practice, Matt is a licensed Colorado real estate broker. He finds this to be a useful compliment to his practice as well as keeping him informed of the latest market trends.
